Luxury Oceanfront Villa

Providenciales, Turks and Caicos Islands

US$ 3,500,000

Description

This four-bedroom oceanfront house is situated in exclusive Silly Creek in the Chalk Sound area of Providenciales in Turks & Caicos Islands. The property is set on an elevated 1.63-acre site which features 240 feet of ocean frontage with jaw-dropping views. Accessed via a 100-foot long Spanish cedar bridge suspended over lush tropical vegetation, the home offers 4,000 square feet of elegant living space spread across 3 pavilions with elements of Balinese touches. The main living pavilion includes a chef's kitchen which is open to an expansive living and dining room that provide a seamless transition to the outdoor living area. The pavilion features soaring vaulted ceilings, coral stone floors and custom-designed Spanish cedar overhead doors and windows. The master bedroom is located in its own pavilion off to the side of the pool and comes complete with a double indoor/outdoor shower. Three large and well-appointed guest bedrooms are housed within the guest pavilion. Each of the guest bedrooms offers ocean views and includes an en suite bathroom, plus a shared media lounge with a beverage center. Outside the property features expansive shaded and sun decks that surround a heated infinity edge pool – the perfect spot to enjoy the magnificent views. Impeccably maintained and offered fully furnished to a very high standard, this home is a popular short term rental property.
