Port St. Charles No.102 boasts a charming and enchanting location at one of the most idyllic beaches on the West Coast of the island. The beachfront location with its "doorstep" accessibility to the calm Caribbean waters is a special highlight. The tucked away spot on the northern stretch of beach, provides a sense of seclusion and privacy yet full accessibility to one of the most incredible expanses of tranquil ocean to be found anywhere in the world. The resort's Yacht Club restaurant is just literally, a lap away from your sandy "doorstep" and moonlight dips under the stars are just as enticing as meandering swims under the sun. The only four-bedroom villa in its category, has simultaneous vistas of both the lagoon and the Caribbean Sea. To accentuate the beauty of the tropical outdoors there is a spacious sheltered dining area that leads to an open air terrace and private plunge pool nestled amongst tropical flora. The stylishly decorated interior of the villa is just as captivating. There are two beautifully decorated en-suite bedrooms on the first floor with the master bedroom and the additional, one of its kind, fourth bedroom on the second floor-both are ensuite. Each of these contemporary and stylish bedrooms have incredible views, either of the beach and ocean on the west, or the lagoon and yachts on the east.
